On the run:

Family 'Samples' athletic life

To take artistic license with an age-old adage, the family that runs together, stays -and plays- together.

At least, that's the way it is with Jim and Karen Samples of Romulus, not to mention their five spry children who keep up with mom and dad on numerous races throughout the summer months.

All seven of them ran in this year's Romulus 10K run, the biggest in the city's history, and for their effort they walked away (or is it 'ran' away) with the "Family Participation" trophy. But that isn't all; 13-year-old Jennifer and seven-year-old Julie both took top honors in their age group.

state. Why? "To be part of the crowd mostly," she admits, saying that "I love the runs, you get a chance to meet people from all over the state with similar interests and things."

The first "official" family run for the Samples came in 1983, when they participated in Hell, Michigan's infamous "Run Through Hell," and since then they have kept it up.

Jim, 35, maintains that running has made his family more health conscious. "We aren't very much into junk foods these days," he says.

So far, dad is the only member of the family to run in a marathon race, which are 26.2 miles long. "I didn't do ex-

"I quit smoking four or five years ago and started to gain some weight, so I took up running as a form of exercise and just stuck with it. I love it."

— Jim Samples

How did this family custom begin? "I quit smoking four or five years ago and started to gain some weight," says Jim, "so I took up running as a form of exercise and just stuck with it. I love it."

Karen Samples had a different reason for getting into the running shoes: "I started running as a form of self-defense," she laughs. "Jim was always going out for his runs, so I just started going along. Then the kids started too, and here we are!"

While Jim and the children profess a love for running, Karen says half-jokingly "I hate it!" She will continue to run, both around home and in 10K (6.2 miles) races around the tremely good or anything, but I didn't really expect to," says Jim, "all I really wanted to do was finish it, and I did."

Mom says that while all the children enjoy running, they may have a future olympian in 10-year-old David. "The other kids run to run," Karen says, "but David runs to win!"

The other young sprinters in the Samples family are Randy and Gary, both 11-years-old.

Karen, a teacher in the Romulus school system, acknowledges that while the actual running isn't too much fun, she'll keep it up "because it is definitely good exercise and besides, I decided if you can't beat 'em, join 'em!" A true family affair!

The Samples family of Romulus like nothing better than to hit the road with their jogging shoes! Jim and Karen Samples were joined in this year's 10K run by all five of their children, earning them the Family Participation Trophy. Two of the children, 13-year-old Jennifer and 7-year-old Julie, even took top honors in their respective age divisions.

Legionnaires' claims third victim

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

The recent outbreak of Legionnaires' disease has claimed a third life. Saturday, at 10:40 p.m., Mrs. Lucille Thomas, 58, of Romulus, died at Westland Medical Center where she had been in "extremely critical" condition for nearly two weeks.

Joseph Baker of Inkster died May 27 in Ann Arbor's University Hospital, and Bishop Green D. Moore, 76, of Detroit, became the first fatality of this recent outbreak when he passed away May 18 at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

As many as 44 people had been treated with symptoms of the disease, and at one point 10 were hospitalized. A spokesman for the county said Tuesday that no other lives were in danger (from the disease), so it appears that Thomas was the last victim of the dreaded virus.

Monday morning, county health officials received word that tests conducted on the second air conditioning unit at the Hilton also contained the Legionnaires' disease bacteria. "That pretty much confirms that the disease was spread to the banquet hall through the air conditioning

"We don't anticipate any more deaths. The excellent cooperation from the people at the Hilton may have helped us save other lives, because this type of outbreak can be much more serious than this one was."

Wayne County Medical Director
Dr. Donald Lawrenchuk

Thomas had seemed on the road to recovery when she suffered kidney failure May 20. It was confirmed last week that Thomas had Legionnaires' disease, but doctors said that was suspected previously.

Reportedly, she had already been declared "brain dead" by doctors at Westland Medical Center.

All three contracted the pneumonia-like disease during a testimonial dinner on April 27 at the Airport Hilton Inn in Romulus for Isaac King, an Inkster pastor who was celebrating his 25th anniversary as pastor of the Church Of God In Christ.

According to Wayne County Medical Director Dr. Donald Lawrenchuk, there is no further danger of contracting the disease at the Hotel. Bacteria proving to be a strain of Legionnaires' was found in one of the hotel's air conditioning units that cooled the banquet hall.

Four others have confirmed cases of the disease, but have been released from various hospitals. "We have antibiotics that can easily take care of the disease if it is treated soon enough, but we didn't learn of it until 12 days after the banquet, when Annapolis Hospital contacted this office that they had seen a number of patients showing signs of Legionnaires' disease," Lawrenchuk said.

system," said Lawrenchuk.

"We don't anticipate any more deaths," Lawrenchuk said, adding that "the excellent cooperation from the people at the Hilton may have helped us save other lives, because this type of outbreak can be much more serious than this one was."

Lawrenchuk verified that Thomas was "brain dead" prior to her "official" death at 10:40 p.m. Saturday. "The thing is, we have to follow the proper procedure, which means that although her brain waves were flat, we had to discontinue all medicine and other means of life support for a period of time.

"Sometimes," Lawrenchuk added, "when we discontinue medication, the person responds, their brain waves come back. We had to make sure before we declared her dead."

According to Lawrenchuk, despite a lot of research being done on Legionnaires' disease, there is still no way to prevent it. Periodic checks of air conditioning units or pool water would not likely stop or detect future outbreaks. "It's still a relatively new disease, there hasn't been enough data compiled yet. The jury is still out as far as preventative measures."

Romulus man killed in collision

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

Tragedy struck in the early hours of Saturday morning, as a 19-year-old Romulus man was killed and two others injured in an automobile accident at the intersection of Wayne and Michigan in the city of Wayne.

Bob Kudla, 19, was reportedly stopped for a red light on Wayne Road and, according to witnesses, inched out into the intersection moments before the light changed. Mark Stoltz, 21, of Lincoln Park then, according to police, allegedly went through a yellow light, his car smashing broadside into Kudla's.

According to Captain Leonard Grabowski of the Wayne Police Department, they arrived on the scene minutes later, finding Kudla and a passenger from his car, Donald Plank, both thrown from the vehicle.

"Kudla was conscious, but had obviously suffered head injuries. He was lying in the fetal position and talking incoherently," said Grabowski.

who added that none of the three were wearing seatbelts.

Both Stoltz and Plank were taken to Westland Medical Center for examination, but police say that neither of them appeared to be badly hurt.

Kudla was pronounced dead at 2:08 a.m. at Westland Medical Center. The exact cause of death is not known yet, but is thought to be internal head injuries.

Donald Plank is the son of Romulus Department of Public Works Director Robert Plank, who said of his son "he's bruised up pretty good, but they aren't sure yet if there are any muscle tears or anything. Physically, he isn't in too bad of shape, but emotionally...that's a different story.

"Don and Bob have been best friends all of their lives. He only lived a few doors away. They practically grew up together, and to see him die like that, well, it's just a horrible tragedy," Plank said.

Grabowski said that it appears unlikely that charges will be made in this case, but the investigation is ongoing.

4 candidates vie for two Board of Education seats

Four candidates will be vying for two seats on the Romulus Board of Education in this Monday's (June 10) election. The two incumbents, Dan Bales and Sandra Langley, are being challenged by Frederick Morris Hay and Todd Lee Hauter.

Voters can cast up to two ballots. Both terms are for four years. As an introduction to the candidates, they are profiled below.

Dan Bales, 41, has lived in Romulus for 16 years, has been on the board since 1981 and has been president of the school board for the last three years. He is active in many community functions, and in 1984 was nominated by the Romulus Parents Area Council for their Recognition, Participation and Achievement Award. His wife, Carole, works in the school system and they have three children: Robert, 21; Brian, 16; and Becky, 12.

Sandra Langley has been a resident of Romulus for 16 years and has served on the school board since 1981, and has been recognized for her achievements by former Governor William Milliken. She has also served as a lobbyist for the Michigan Association of School Boards. She has four children: Raymond, 19; Steve, 17; Bob, 15; and Jon, 13.

Fred Morris Hay, 33, has lived in Romulus all of his life. He graduated with honors from Romulus High School and graduated Cum Laude from Western Michigan University. He is active in the community, including the Kiwanis, the Romulus Historical Society and Calvary Baptist Church activities. He is married to Kathleen, and his uncle, Carl Morris, was renowned for his work on the Romulus school board.

Todd Lee Hauter, 38, has lived in the community since 1978. A 29-year veteran of the Navy, Hauter worked as a recruiter and taught naval science in the Romulus schools for one year. During his stint in the Navy, Hauter received 19 achievement awards. He is married to Denise, and they have two children: Todd Jr. and Dean Patrick.

Hoppin' along

On May 23, the children of the YWCA Child Care Center participated in a "Hop-A-Thon" for Muscular Dystrophy. Designed to be non-competitive, the "Hop-A-Thon" was both fun and educational. After obtaining pledges ranging from 2 cents and up per hop, each child hopped for a timed two-minute period. Not only were the children involved in helping others through their participation but the parents were also involved by enthusiastically obtaining pledges from friends and co-workers. For the event, each child wore a pair of "bunny ears" and "warmed up" with some simple exercises. As each child hopped, the other children shouted encouragement and clapped and cheered when the total hops were announced. All of the children who participated received an award from the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The YWCA Child Care Center "Hop-A-Thon" was arranged by Tina Ziomek, Program Coordinator for MDA in Allen Park.

Graduation day

It's that time of year again. Graduation ceremonies, caps and gowns, invitations to be sent, cars to be painted absurdly and graduation parties to attend.

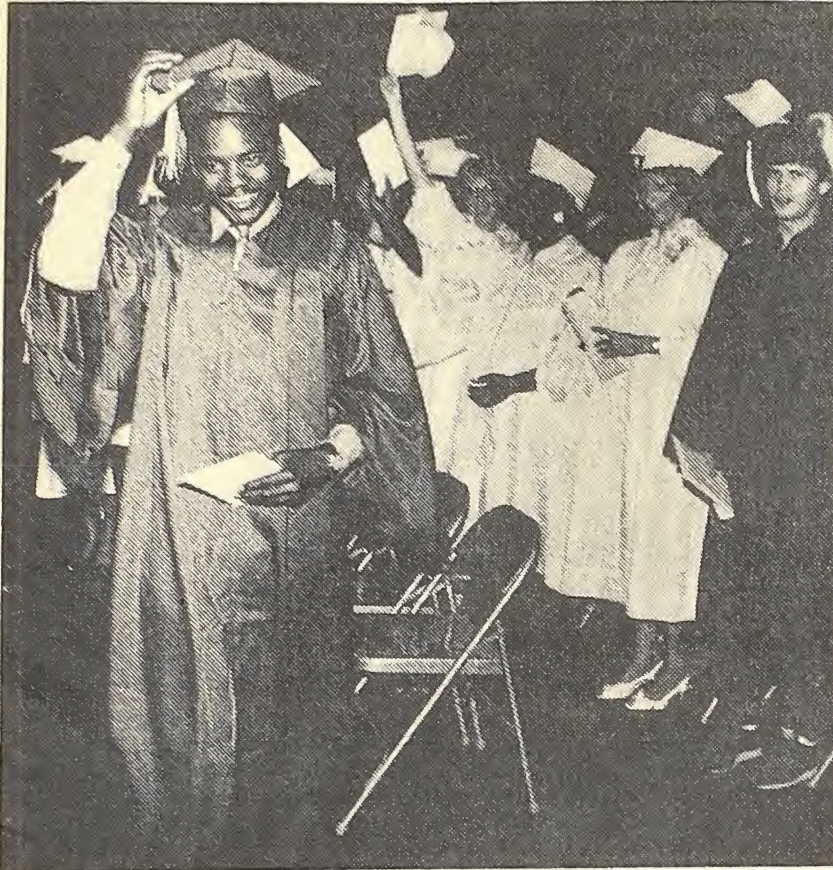

Sounds like a typical high school graduation, but there's something special about this one: it was 60 proud and determined Romulus Adult Education graduates who participated in the May 31 ceremonies held in the high school auditorium. "For these students, it was a time to reap the rewards for the many sacrifices made. The goal of obtaining their high school diploma or their G.E.D. certificate is the end of a dream come true," said Ed Clark of the Romulus Adult Education Department.

Special "Determined Student" awards were given to Gladys Snell and Darlene Baker for their outstanding display of determination and commitment towards the completion of their high school diplomas.

Distinguished service awards were given to two retiring adult education instructors, the husband and wife team of Joe and Doris Brenne-man who were honored for their seven years of service, dedication and support of the program.

In the last 13 years, over 800 adults have graduated from the adult education program in Romulus. Each graduate took the important first step toward their goal of graduation by taking advantage of the free education available from the program. Adult education has also provided several academic programs to help the graduates plan for their future.

FAME AND FORTUNE...The talented students of Romulus High School made their debut in a fine performance of the well-known play, "Up the Down Staircase" this past Saturday. In the newly-restored high school auditorium, Debbie Snider and Pat Parker dedicated themselves to directing the play. And a good job they did!

The play begins with our own Kimberly Boler playing the part of Silvia Barrett, who is a school teacher at Calvin Coolidge High School. Her first day on the job illustrates how seemingly impossible it is to get a "message" through to her students. She is unable to even complete roll call.

The pompous principal was well played by Richard J. Zavodsky II. Denise Berlinn took the part of the teacher, Beatrice Schachter. Antoine M. Bosley brilliantly portrayed the suave but heartless Paul Barringer. J.J. McHabe, the disciplinarian administrative assistant, was played by Gordon Evans. Dawn Neal was the Freudian guidance counselor. Renee Brantly nursed her students to good health with many a cup of tea.

The librarian who never seemed to lend out any books was played by Jacqueline Pearce. Michele Good made a good school clerk with her promise to ring the bell promptly and on time, though the time it would ring was uncertain. Dawn Serott played the part of Ms. Barrett's best friend.

The students who played the parts of students (typecasting?) really let their characters' personalities shine through, and had a good time doing it. David Bell assured his teacher that she had 65 percent support of the students near the beginning of the play. As time went on, he offered more and more support.

Bob Blanton was just full of wisecracks, even though he was a bit helpful from time to time.

Susan Omarzu found that school wasn't so bad after all, while Gina Pezzullo seemed to be truly lovesick for "hunk" teacher Paul Barringer.

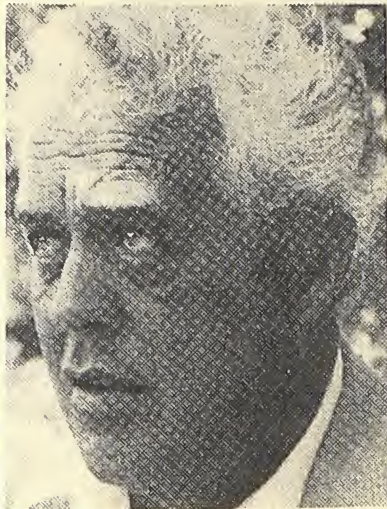

Sharon Wilcox finally began to dress more conservatively, Takanta Fowler was convincingly sarcastic, while Peter Johnson handled his smart remarks well. I never did see anyone buy a school paper from Cheryl Waters, and Michelle Williams wish to keep the new teacher came true.

Anna Boatwright actually kept a straight face while reading her creative cockroach story, while Craig Buttignoli eventually dropped out of school. Levon Alexander made a good, slightly conceited esquire, and Jason Nesler finally allowed the ice that surrounded him to melt.

My heart was touched when Anjeanette Parks decided to return to school. Tina Grove and Laurine Trill kept the class in constant chaos with their disruptive message deliveries.

Technicals were deftly handled by the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago, Roman Imielowski, Jovita Imielowski, Shandra Easterling, John Damian and Craig Evans. A cast and crew pizza party was arranged by Mrs. Dorothy Nesler after the Saturday night curtain. Everyone seemed to

WHY DID YOU DECIDE TO SEEK THIS OFFICE?

"I believe the schools have made great strides in their "Pursuit of Excellence" in the last four years. However, there is still work to be done. Because of my concern for our children's education, I am seeking re-election. We must continue to move ahead."

"I want to try and improve the quality of education in Romulus."

"I would like to continue the efforts of the last few years in rebuilding our school system. Much has been accomplished but it is extremely important that we continue to put the needs of the students as our top priority."

"I was approached by several citizens and asked to consider running for office. They felt the board needed some good common sense. After careful consideration I decided to run for the board."

WHY DO YOU FEEL YOU ARE QUALIFIED TO FILL THE POSITION YOU SEEK?

"Having served on the Romulus Board of Education for the past four years, I am aware of the problems, obligations, needs and challenges facing the Romulus School District. I sincerely care about our community and the well-being of the people and students of this district."

"I've worked with various schools while on (Navy) recruiting duty here in Michigan. I see what they do and I pick up ideas that I think would help the schools here in Romulus."

"I was first elected in 1981. In 1978 I was appointed by Governor Milliken as chairperson of the citizen's advisory committee. I'm also active in county and state associations to make myself knowledgeable in educational happenings throughout the state. I've represented our district on a national level and received state recognition."

"I am a fifth generation Romulus resident and a graduate of the Romulus school system. I also graduated from Western Michigan University, and I care deeply about the community and the school system."

WHAT DO YOU FEEL ARE THE MAJOR ISSUES INVOLVED IN THIS ELECTION?

"The teacher's contract. Labor peace with the Romulus teachers is essential for an effective instructional environment. Through a cooperative effort, buildings have been repaired, the budget is balanced, instructional classes were returned, academic standards rose, test scores are on the rise. Expanded extra-curricular activities. Romulus schools are on the move."

"None."

"Keeping the student's needs as a top priority and being financially responsible to the residents of this community. I have in the past and will in the future continue to put students and responsibility to our residents first. I have and will work for a contract that is fair to the teachers and within the means of this community."

"The problem with the contract settlement between the teachers and the school board is the biggest issue."

COMMENT ON THE STATUS OF THE TEACHER - BOARD NEGOTIATIONS.

"Talks are continuing. You try to remain optimistic that there will be a break through. As a Board Member I stay open-minded, offer suggestions, keeping in mind the financial welfare of the community, and the educational needs of Romulus students."

"I feel that hard feelings on both sides have prevented a settlement. Pride by both groups has gotten in the way. It's a shame that nothing has been achieved in the negotiations by now. One or two new faces may be just what is needed to get the settlement back on track."

"My conviction to put the students first encompasses the fact that teachers provide an invaluable part of our students educational experience. My ability to see the needs of both sides allows me to make responsible decisions. Currently the board has made every effort to get a contract settlement and I can only hope that all of the teaching staff are aware of what we have offered."

"I believe it is imperative that the contract question be settled before fall. It is best for all parties not to let negotiations drag on. The board and teachers owe it to the students to break the present impasse. I think the present board has had ample time to settle with the teachers. Maybe some new faces on the board could bring a fresh approach to these negotiations."

be enjoying themselves very much.

Don't you think we ought to have more of this type of thing? If you were there....you can say "I saw that kid's first performance," when one of them becomes famous. I wonder who it will be?

PRETTY KITTY...Could you imagine anyone telling that sweet child he couldn't keep a pretty kitty for a pet? Well, I could. You didn't see the kitty!

He was in a large cage and ate an incredible amount of raw meat. I think that animal should stay right where he is - at the zoo! More than 100 students from Barth Elementary School watched the playful polar bears, saw the black panthers, lions, tigers, lizards, snakes, gorillas, turtles, elephants, hippos, mountain goats and many other interesting animals at the Toledo Zoo last Friday.

Some students even got to go for a ride on a camel. Many excited parents and students had the good fortune to attend the fun-filled field trip with teachers Raspberry, Hinkle, Richard and Royal.

ROMULUS IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS...Don't miss it. It's not every day that you can view the slides and film strips of the early days of Romulus. The Romulus Historical Society and the Sesquicentennial Committee will be your hosts at 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 19 at city hall. Be sure and bring some change for a 25-cent bag of popcorn or a 50-cent can of pop. It's sure to be an interesting evening. Sesquicentennial souvenirs will also be available for purchase.

Just another of the many Sesquicentennial events!

Puppets teach youth about alcohol abuse

Two staff members of the Catherine McAuley Health Center Chemical Dependency Program are using puppets to teach children of alcoholics about drugs.

Ann Arbor residents and therapists Lou Ann Donner and William O'Connor from CMHC's Huron Oaks facility, attended a one-week workshop recently to learn how to use the seven puppets of BABES—Beginning Alcohol and Addictions Basic Education Studies.

"I know from my experience with children that they will understand the messages we give them and they do apply them in their behavior," said

Donner. "BABES is more than just information about alcohol and drugs. BABES teaches living skills that will help children learn to be free of the kinds of psychological handicaps common in the offspring of alcoholics and other drug dependents."

Each of the puppets characterizes a different lesson of life. Together they talk to the children about image and feelings, decision making and peer pressure, coping skills and getting help.

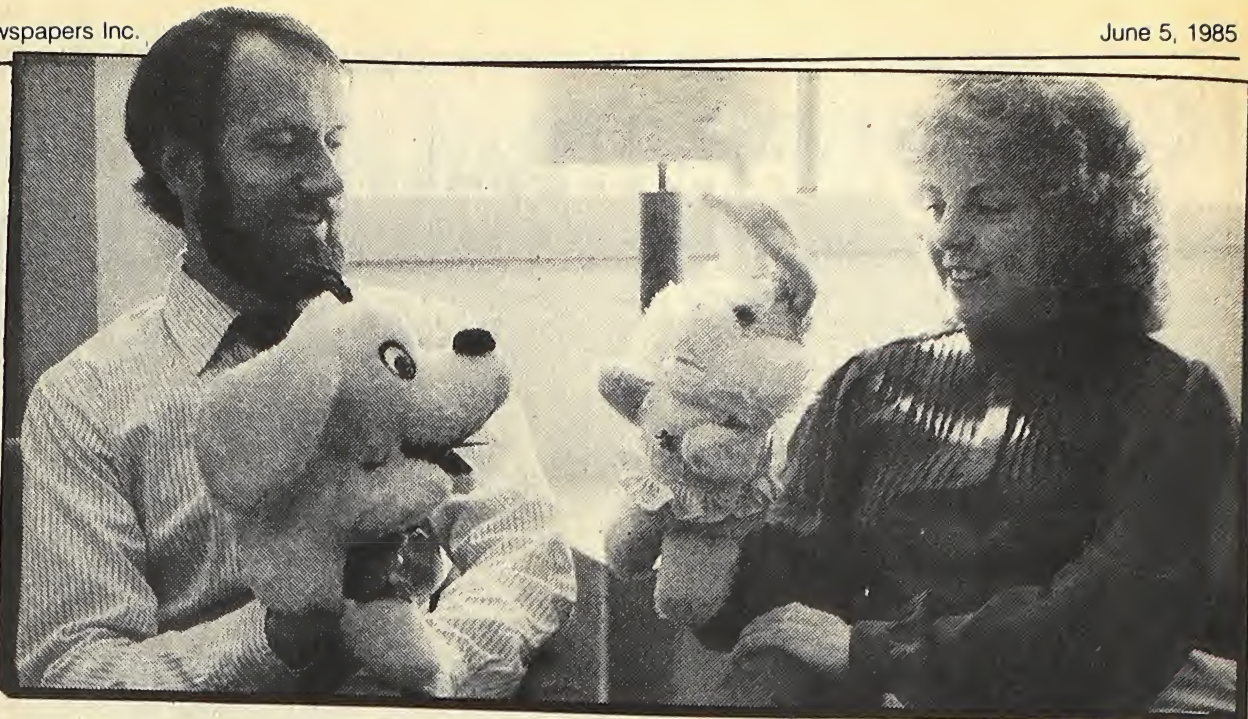

"Children can connect the ideas by relating to the puppets," Donner said.

At the end of the series, the children are quizzed about what they have learned and are presented with certificates.

Plans call for the program to be expanded from the twice-weekly performances in the clinical library at Huron Oaks to go into the schools and community.

The seven-year-old program was created by Detroiters Maxine Willis and Lottie Jones.

Willis, a preschool teacher, became disturbed about the effects on children of abuse of alcohol and other drugs by

Lou Ann Donner and William O'Connor chat with two of the puppets they use in BABES to teach children about drugs.

County to provide job opportunities for eligible teens

Wayne County Executive William Lucas is advising young people interested in summer jobs with the divisions of Roads, Parks, Airports and Public Works to directly call the office of Public Services Work Force Coordinator at 224-7618 or 224-7604.

Two hundred, thirty maintenance and clerical jobs are being offered to young people of Wayne County (exclusive of Detroit and Downriver communities which maintain their own programs) under the Summer Youth Employment and Training Program administered by the Wayne County Private Industry Corporation. The jobs will start in mid-June, last about two months, and pay from $3.35 to $5 per hour.

Those applying must be unemployed and qualify as economically disadvantaged under federal guidelines.

"The OPS is structuring supervisory capacities to integrate the Summer Youth employees in permanent working crews so as to provide them with a more meaningful job experience," Lucas said. "This will not only give the youth an opportunity to develop their skills but also serve their communities in a significant way. Some participants may even obtain permanent employment as a result of this program."

Pointing out that this year's Summer Youth program emphasizes public service projects, Barry T. Hawthorne, executive director of Wayne County Private Industry Corporation, said: "This approach not only benefits the community, but also builds a stronger sense of citizenship in participants."

The public-service type projects will range from providing better park and recreational services to improving road surfaces.

Hawthorne pointed out that, youth may also apply at Information and Referral Centers in Dearborn, Livonia and New Boston by phoning 943-2028, 591-6400 and 782-1710.

adults and about their attitudes regarding these substances. Jones, a native of Mississippi and a recovering alcoholic, knew that early decisions and painful experiences could warp children's personalities and thus create the "internal climate" that often leads to alcoholism.

Together they wove the information -- much of which they gathered "from the mouths of babes" -- into puppet shows.

Today there are more than 500 BABES kits of puppets, stories and instructions in use. About 200 of these are being used in Michigan.

The BABES program is supported by the United Foundation of Greater Detroit, the Michigan Office of Substance Abuse Services and Stroh Brewery Company.

Canton man charged in bike path sex crimes

By ROSE MARY REIZ
ANP Staff Writer

A Canton man may be charged in connection with four of seven sex crimes which occurred on the I-275 bike path in Canton last summer.

Darrell Paul Morey, 35, of Chichester Drive in Canton was arraigned Friday on one count of first degree criminal sexual conduct in connection with an incident which occurred last June 11.

At a preliminary examination scheduled for next Monday, police expect to formally charge Morey with three additional bike path sex crimes, Canton Police Lt. Al Wilson reported.

"We will be re-approaching the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office with three additional warrant requests charging Morey with one count of first degree criminal sexual conduct, one count of second degree criminal sexual conduct and one count of assault with intent to commit first degree criminal sexual conduct," Wilson explained.

Morey, who police plan to see re-arraigned during next week's preliminary examination, was identified by a total of four victims during a police line-up late Friday.

Morey was first developed as a suspect, Wilson said, after becoming involved in a related investigation conducted by police in another community.

The suspect, the lieutenant said, was reportedly identified as the attacker of a young woman who was knocked off her bicycle while riding alone.

"After learning of the related investigation, we talked to Morey briefly about a week ago, and obtained photographs of him which did match descriptions provided by at least four of our victims last year," Wilson said.

The suspect was arrested last week after the victim of the first bike path assault identified Morey in a photographic line-up.

The June incident was the first of seven sexual assaults to occur on the I-275 bike path between June and August last summer.

After the first incident, the victim, a 17-year-old Canton resident, told police she was riding her bicycle northbound on the path when a white male attacker jumped from behind some bushes, knocked her off her bike and assailant who attempted to rape her. The woman struggled and managed to escape the suspect, who fled east on Koppernick on foot.

Police sketch of bike path suspect.

According to the victim, the subject struck her and threatened to kill her if she did not comply with his demands. He then forced her to remove her clothing and engage in oral sex before he fled through the woods.

The description given by the first victim matched those of three others who were attacked on the path July 5, July 7 and Aug. 7 last year.

The second victim, a 26-year-old Canton woman, was also riding alone on the trail just south of Koppernick Road when she was knocked off her bicycle, repeatedly struck in the face and thrown into a grassy ditch by a white male

The method of operation and description offered by both victims were similar to those that resulted from the third and fifth assaults, police said.

Each victim was attacked while jogging or riding alone on the path during daylight hours. Each attack occurred in approximately the same location on the path, an area where dense trees and a sound barrier hide the trail from the view of freeway traffic.

In each of those four cases, victims described their attacker as a 5-foot, 10-inch, 150-pound well-groomed white male in his 30's.

A sixth and unrelated incident was solved by police when a Flat Rock man confessed to the attack of a Belleville woman on the path.

Police also believe that the fourth and seventh attacks, which occurred at different locations and in which conflicting descriptions were offered, may be unrelated to others.

"Out of the total of seven cases, one was cleared and at least one other I'm convinced was unrelated," Wilson said.

A plea of not guilty was entered on Morey's behalf before Judge MacDonald in 35th District Court. Bond was set at $200,000.

Morey is in Wayne County Jail awaiting a preliminary examination tentatively scheduled for 10:30 a.m. next Monday at 35th District Court.

Party loses its surprise, but cheers Rev. England

It was going to be a surprise party, but the surprise part sort of fell apart. After all, when you're expecting between 500 and 700 visitors from all over the country, not to mention politicians and dignitaries from around the state, things tend to get a little noisy.

And so, when Rev. Lonnie England celebrates a special service at 10 a.m. on Sunday, June 2, marking his 40th Anniversary as pastor of the Romulus church, the crowd is expected to be overflowing.

"We've been in contact with people from all over that have been touched by Pastor England during his service here, and everyone thinks it's a wonderful idea," said Dave Krause, a deacon at Calvary Baptist.

A well-loved figure throughout the community, England has had an interesting past, and it deserves notice.

He was born and raised on a small farm in Manchester, Tennessee, before moving to Romulus in 1941. He was married and had three children; Linda, David and Paul, all of whom are graduates of Romulus High School.

When asked how he felt upon learning of the planned celebration in his honor, England said "I was very thrilled about it, because if you look around, there aren't many pastors that stay in one smaller church for that long. I'm honored to have been able to live and learn with the fine people of this area. Romulus is definitely my home now."

England says that the ministry first started out of "the old township hall on Goddard Road at Sterling, with an average congregation at that time of 32 people per Sunday." That was in June of 1945. In December of that year, they moved into the basement of the old auditorium on Ozga Road near Porter. And so on.

Always watching his church members grow in size and in numbers has been a feast for England, but one particular high point came in September of 1972 when a new building to house the ministry in was completed at its present address, 11338 Ozga. Then, in 1980, an all-purpose building which included a full-size gymnasium was completed.

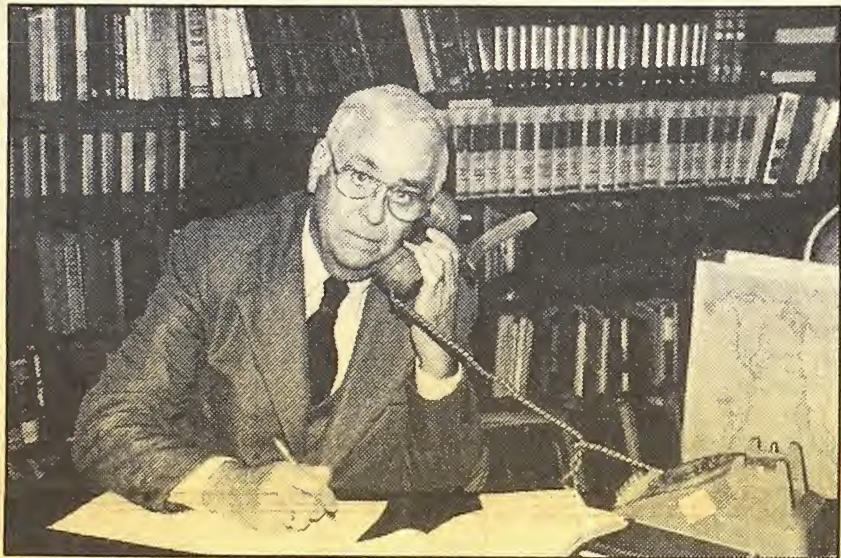

Currently, Pastor England's church has a membership of well over 500, a Sunday school program for all ages, and Word of Life clubs for the youth of the community and support of 95 missionary families on every continent of the world.

"I am very pleased with all of this, but it's always been my practice to be the quiet one and here comes something in my honor. It's thrilling, it really is," said England.

England added that "the Lord willing, I may go into semi-retirement next year. There are some very good young people coming up from our ranks, and it just seems about time."

"I will continue to live in Romulus though," England says, adding "after all, this is my home and will remain my home."

The Voters' choice

Voters in the area-wide school board elections face some difficult choices next week, while others need only to sanction the candidacy of the few who have chosen to seek office in the area.

Choosing candidates from a wide field of diversified backgrounds is never easy, and in some cases this year, caused a great deal of heated debate among the editorial board which selected the candidates we would endorse. It is only fair to acknowledge that there are dissenting opinions on our staff regarding some of our choices. Overall, however, we firmly believe that the candidates we have selected will best serve the needs of the school districts at this time.

In the Wayne-Westland School Board race we have chosen Ken Barnhill and Andy Spisak for the four-year terms.

Barnhill offers the district voters new blood at a time when it faces major problems. A product of the Wayne-Westland system, Barnhill has the ability to serve the citizens well.

Spisak, in our analysis, narrowly edges out incumbent Dave Moranty, but offers a healthy alternative to what has been.

The incumbent candidate Fred Warmbier, in our opinion, has served long and well, but his time has past. It's time to deal with the problems of today in a constructive, informed way. Warmbier was, in the past, effective in checking possible administration excesses, but his continued presence will only mire the board in what was, not what must be. Moranty's inclination to follow Warmbier's antagonistic views are not what the doctor ordered for Wayne-Westland at this time.

For the three-year term, the choice is less clear. Rex Wilhoite, a recent appointee to a vacated term, has demonstrated an ability to ask the right questions and do his homework. He deserves an opportunity to continue to serve. He does not, however, demonstrate the poise as a candidate or campaigner as does his opponent and long-time public servant Sylvia Kozorosky. Kozorosky is running hard and doing an effective job in meeting people one on one. She has been representing the interests of senior citizens in Westland and serving them well indeed during the past years. Unfortunately, as we see it, her election could result in a collision course between the city and school sponsored senior programs, and her employment responsibilities seriously conflict with her desire to serve all the citizens as a board member.

The "divided city" reputation of Westland seriously mars Kozorosky's credibility. While the school board should not be a rubber stamp for any policies and decisions of the administration, a board that can and will work together effectively to reach compromise solutions to steer the district through these troubled times is needed and needed now. It would appear that Kozorosky has cast some doubt on her ability in this area, which may be a loss to voters.

With much consideration to both candidates for this term, we would endorse Rex Wilhoite.

(Editors Note: Sylvia Kozorosky might do well to focus her sights on a city council seat or perhaps a House of Representatives post. Her talents on the campaign trail as an advocate of a cause should be put to better use, and could benefit the entire area if properly utilized. We wish her well.)

In the race for the two expiring seats on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education, incumbent David Artley is our choice for a four-year board term. Although Stephen Harper would also be a wise choice for this seat, two recent board resignations make Artley, who can provide needed continuity, the best bet.

Dean Swartzwelter, another board incumbent, is our choice for a two-year seat on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education. Appointed to the school board following the resignation of Thomas Yack last fall, Swartzwelter has, in the last several months, proven to be a thoughtful, articulate and accessible addition to the board.

In the Romulus race, we give the nod to Dan Bales and Sandra Langley, both incumbents. In our opinion, they are two of the strongest board members and deserve to retain their seats.

The Belleville contest offers no challengers to the three candidates vying for the three available terms. It only requires the sanction of their efforts with a vote.

In Westwood, incumbent John DeGhetto would be our choice. The current board president, we believe he does, indeed, deserve the opportunity to complete some of the tasks he has begun during his tenure.

Our second endorsement would go to former board member Hazel Neubecker. Her 13 years of experience would well serve the district and her accessibility to the citizens is of great value to the area at this time.

Of the three candidates seeking the two four-year terms on the Inkster Board of Education, we would support current president George Williams. Williams, it would appear, has a strong and sincere desire to truly provide quality education. His efforts should not go unnoticed or unrewarded by voters. Additionally, we would support the candidacy of William Clark. Clark would, we feel, ask the right questions and provide a good balance on the board.

We might add that any citizen who undertakes the effort of a campaign for a school board seat is deserving of the admiration and gratitude of the area. It is a difficult and usually rather anonymous job fraught with problems and serious responsibilities. Our hats are off to all those who threw their's in the ring.

The best man is a woman

For 25 years John C. Seiler has served the City of Wayne courts in a competent and dignified manner.

His sense of fairness and thorough understanding of the law has provided first the Wayne Municipal Court and later the 29th District Court with a high quality judicial system. Seiler's decision to step down from the bench on July 1 leaves a large void to be filled by Gov. James Blanchard.

The governor now must appoint a successor who will bring legal experience and impeccably good judgement to the 29th District Court.

We feel that Carolyn Archbold is the most qualified candidate for the appointment, based on several factors.

Archbold epitomizes the type of individual needed for this important position: she is a fair-minded, compassionate and caring person with a strong sense of justice and fair play. Since 1977 she has been a partner in a local law firm and holds membership in various legal professional groups.

Archbold also is a vital and active member in the Wayne community, having served as a member of the Wayne Civitans, Chamber of Commerce, Soroptimists, Wayne Cable Commission, Wayne Homecoming Festival and the Wayne County Special Olympics projects.

Her popularity with the citizens of Wayne became apparent in 1982 as she narrowly lost a bid to unseat Seiler in the general election.

Of those candidates we have heard mentioned for the appointment to date, Archbold is clearly the best choice for the post. We strongly urge the governor to name Carolyn Archbold the judge of the 29th District Court in Wayne.

Put end to landfills -

To the Editor:

I write in regards to the editorial that appeared in the Romulus Roman May 22, 1985, titled "Landfill woes demand solutions, not alibis."

Another 105 acres of our precious natural resource destroyed. When is it going to stop? Why do we continue to allow these dump operators to put solid and toxic wastes into the ground when there are viable alternatives to landfilling? We are allowing these dump operators to pollute the very air we breathe, the water we drink and the land that we farm. I say we, because we are the ones that can change things. We MUST force our state and local governments into seriously looking into the alternative methods.

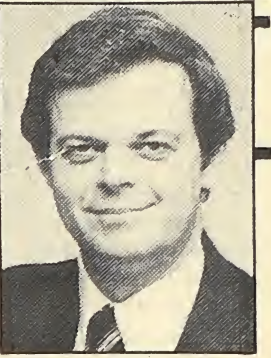

Do the landfill operators care about our property values hitting rock bottom or that our businesses are affected to the

At the movies

Okay, I admit it. I'm hooked! The dynamic duo has captured my attention and admiration.

For those of you who don't know of whom I speak, let me fill in the blanks.

Gene Siskel is the movie critic for the Chicago Tribune and Roger Ebert is the movie critic at the Chicago Sun-Times. They are seen, together, on Detroit Television every Sunday night from 11:45 p.m. until 12:15 a.m. on Channel 7. Are you with me now? I have long since accepted the fact that I am a died-in-the-wool film fanatic who O-D's on movies . . . in the theatre, on air, TV, cable and from video rental stores. I love them. I LOVE the movies.

Well, even I get bummed out when I go to the theatre and am subjected to the likes of "Sheena", or the truly forgettable "Night Patrol". Where does one turn for guidance and assurance that he is not destined for an evening of toil and gloom wasting two hours of time and about $9 on pure dribble?

There is, of course, the Detroit News and Free Press. They have movie reviewers and even a rating system-on a scale of one to 10 or zero to four roses, they attempt to give the witless fools such as myself who read the printed hype in newspaper advertisements the real scoop on which movies are as good as the ads claim.

The dailies, I have found, however, a) haven't reviewed the movie until after I've seen it and then tell it was good when I know perfectly well it wasn't, or b) tell me it was bad when after viewing it in spite of them I find myself having enjoyed it and not in agreement with their analysis.

And then, of course, there is the likes of Davey Marlin Jones seen on Channel 4. He gets my vote for the most unique presentation of movie reviews . . . but have you noticed he only appears when news is slow enough to warrant even Davey as a filler?

There is an occasional movie review on Entertainment Tonight and some others which are so forgettable that I've already forgotten them.

Which brings us to the Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum of movie-dom (no disrespect intended, guys!) Siskel and Ebert . . . these two Chicagoans (or is it Chicagoites) are witty, intelligent, stimulating, thought provoking and a lot of other things. I could use a long string of adjectives to describe their talents, you see, I am a true fan.

These two, in my opinion, are the champs of critical movie analysis and can always be counted on to be entertaining as well as reliable in their guidelines of movies. Those of us who are hooked on the world of celluloid still like to know what kind of an evening viewing we're in for. If it's bad, that doesn't mean we'll stay home . . . we just want to know it's bad in advance.

Siskel and Ebert's weekly half-hour show "At The Movies" offers a view that is double . . . that is, two views of the same film. Often, they both give a "thumbs up" or "thumbs down" to the same film, but frequently they disagree as to the value of a given story line, performance or bit of directing. When they do, they are, by and large, precise and analytical in their presentation of their case for or against a particular movie.

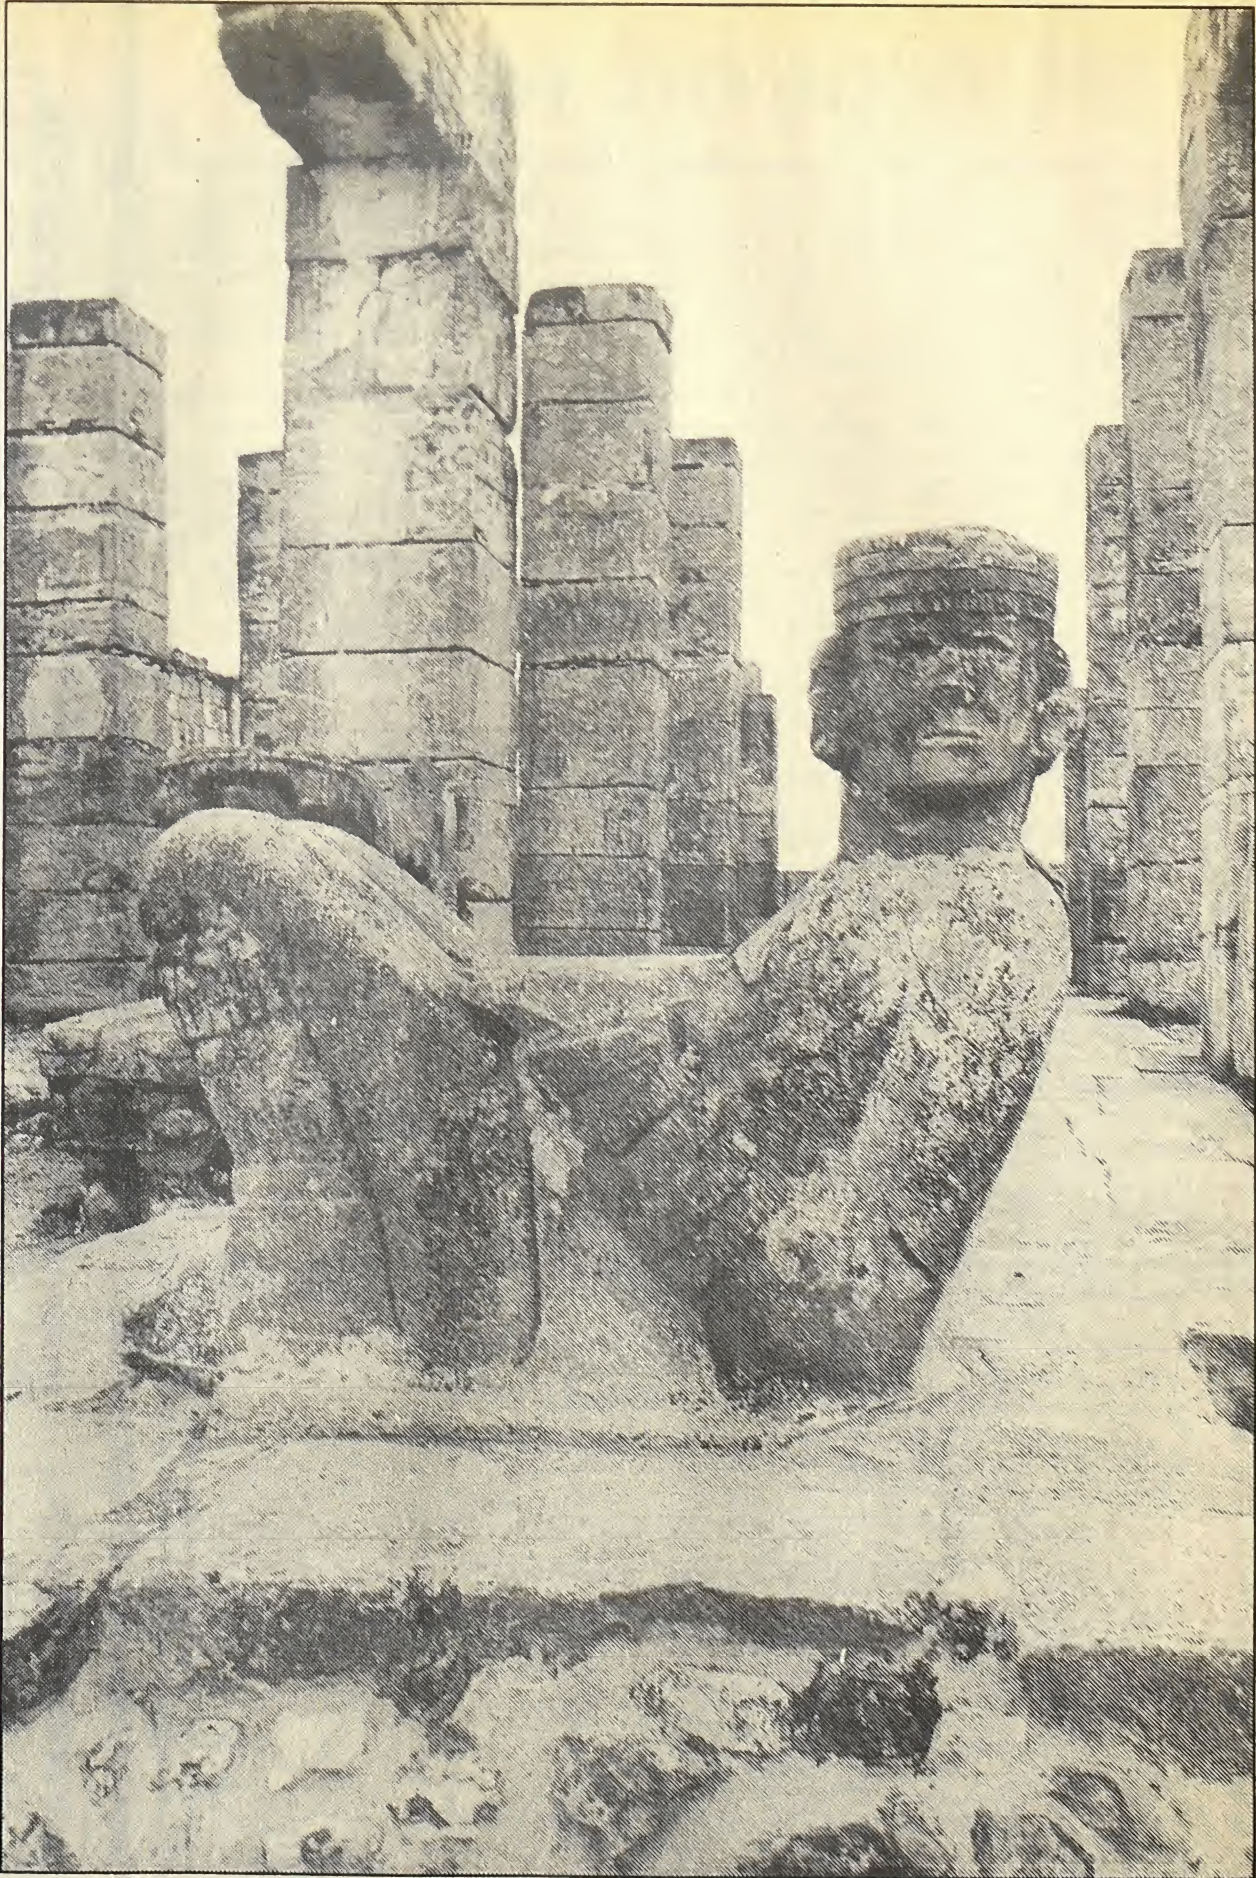

There is a credibility to the performance of this pair sparring through their 30 minutes. What makes them most believable is that they hail from two newspapers which thrash it out each day for circulation, advertising dollars and readers.

This then, is not usual kissy-face that we see between two air personalities who earn their livelihood from the same payroll.

Nope, these two may like each other . . . then again, they may not. When they argue, point that we can't even make a decent living? Do they have to sit down to dinner at night and smell the odors that a dump brings with them, or do they have to look at garbage littered streets with rats running about? OF COURSE THEY DON'T. They are relaxing in their homes somewhere far away from THEIR dumps! So now why should you or I be subjected to such unbearable, unsightly conditions caused by the dump operators business? This is not right! No one should have to suffer because of someone else's greed.

Don't wait for the DNR to come in and help. They're the ones who approved these dumps in the first place and it wouldn't look good for the same agency to be giving out violations. If we leave it up to the dump operators, they'd make Southern Wayne County into a dumping grounds for the rest of the state. As it is now, there are dumps everywhere you look.

In Sumpter Township there's a beauty! Approximately 200 acres of garbage piled high enough that it looks like the mountains down south, garbage and debris all over, the stench so bad that when you drive by, you keep your windows rolled up, many homes boarded up and deserted, broken up and battered streets from the heavy trucks delivering their cargo, and the massive flocks of sea gulls which resemble a locust attack fly overhead and leave you their digested dinners on your front lawns.

To communicate with the dump operators is fruitless, as it has shown by past experiences. They have a legal permit to pollute the air, water and land we desperately depend on to live. Now why should they communicate with us? Our concerns are not their concerns! Stopping the dump operators is our only way for survival and to insure our future generations a clean and safe place to live and raise their children. Let's make landfilling a thing of the past, not a hope for the future.

To The Editor:
The organizers of the Wayne-Westland Memorial Day Parade should be commended. The community participation and enthusiasm was refreshing on this very special holiday.

However, I take offense to "Parade Politics" on a day to honor our dead. Admirably, the City of Wayne and Westland Councilmen walked together without need for personal recognition with the exception of Councilwoman Nancy Neal. Mrs. Neal chose to walk by herself followed by a car labeled with political signs.

This was day for unity in the community. Honoring and remembering those who have gone before us was the purpose of the parade . . . not parading for political office.

I find Mrs. Neal's actions self-serving and disrespectful.

Important election

To the Editor:
Election time is upon us for the Wayne-Westland School Board. June 19 is a very important election. I urge all to study and know your candidates well. Know who supports them, such as, are they supported by tempers get very close to the edge and egos come right to the surface. Obviously, they disagree . . . they are each sure the other is an idiot.

I like them. I like their show. I love what it represents, I enjoy seeing two qualified experts, in any field, go at it one on one. The benefit to the viewer can only be a real education about the issue. And since the issue with these two is movies, my admitted addiction, I thrive on it.

Rarely do we find such skill in any field as these two represent. I wish there were more like them. I might learn to like television.

See you next week.

taxpayers, parents who have their child's education at stake or are they supported by special interest groups, such as unions of the school district, employee groups, etc., who have contracts at stake?

Know who is giving financial backing to the candidates (all this is public knowledge). Know how they feel about the deficit we're in, how they plan on getting us out of it: are they going to impose more taxes on us, cut our childrens' programs or where are they going to make the cuts?

Find out how they would vote on upcoming contracts with the condition this district is in. (We can't afford the contracts that have been voted in, in the past let alone more).

If program cuts have to be made, where does each of the candidates propose to make these cuts? It's kind of hard to find these things out without a meet your candidates time. (The only one was held in the schools for 12th graders).

Know the voting record of the candidates: did they just start voting when they decided to run in the election? Know who each of the candidates is employed by, also, their families. Are their family members employees of W-W? Would these candidates' vote make a difference on their families' pay checks. (You never cut off the hand that butters your bread).

Don't get me wrong, these special interest groups have a right to support who they want on their own and work for their candidates on their own time even though the greatest majority do not live in W-W and do not pay taxes here. They have their jobs and contracts to think of and are going to support the person that they feel is going to do them the most good.

Just like the taxpayer, parent, etc. should support the candidates they feel will do the most for their child's education.

When voting, are these candidates going to be afraid to vote their own minds? Or are they going to take the easy way out and call themselves "positive" candidates, because the school district can always expect a "positive yes" vote out of them when they want it.

- 3B. Motion by Bergeron, supported by Wadsworth to concur with the recommendations of the Planning Commission and adopt the following resolutions:

WHEREAS: a proper petition for Rezoning (P.C. 003-010-85) has been filed by Ray J. Swidan seeking utilization of the following described property, presently zoned as O-1 (Office District) for a C-3 (Highway Service District) use as an automatic car wash:

That part of the N.E. 1/4 of Section 17, T.3E., R. 9 S., City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan described as beginning at a point distant N. 01° 48' 50" W., along the East line of Section 17, 389.59 feet and N. 89° 57' 50" W., 60.03 feet from the East 1/4 corner of Section 17, thence N. 01° 48' 50" W., 165.00 feet; thence N. 89° 57' 50" W., 240.00 feet; thence S. 01° 48' 50" E., 165.00 feet; thence S. 89° 57' 50" E., 240 feet to the point of beginning, containing 0.909 acres more or less and subject to all easements of record.

WHEREAS: the Petition has been studied and reviewed by the Planning Commission in due course, and a Public Hearing having been conducted by the Planning Commission on February 21, 1985, and

WHEREAS: after due deliberation, Planning Commission by resolution dated, February 21, 1985 recommended denial of said petition to the City Council, and

WHEREAS: the matter having been referred to the City Council for action in accordance with the Zoning Code, the City Council conducted a Public Hearing on the request for rezoning on April 22, 1985, and

WHEREAS: after careful study and review and upon deliberation the City Council of the City of Romulus hereby resolves:

That the Petition for Rezoning heretofore filed by Raymond J. Swidan be and the same is hereby denied for the following reasons:

1. That the proposed use (C-3) would necessarily increase traffic hazards and congestion by increasing the number of vehicles in an area where the Senior High School is already located and that the vehicles entering and leaving such a high intensity business as proposed would obstruct the flow of traffic to such an extent that its usefulness as a main artery might be destroyed.
2. The zoning classification of the O-1 permits a reasonable use of the land given the fact that the neighboring property to the south is being used as a O-1 use as well as
3. The proposed use (C-3) would be inconsistent with the uses of the rest of the property in the immediate area on the west side of Wayne Road.
4. The proposed use at the requested location would amount to improper spot zoning as the use is inappropriate. The C-3 use would be more appropriate on the east side of Wayne Road which already is zoned for said uses and contains at the present time other strip commercial enterprises of the same high intensity use as is proposed in this petition.
5. Such proposed use would be in direct violation of the Master Plan of the City of Romulus.

Larcinese, Truss and Inkster relay team win coveted titles

Matt Larcinese

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Belleville's Matt Larcinese and Cherry Hill's Eric Truss wrote their names in their respective school's track history books over the weekend.

Larcinese and Truss won coveted state individual titles. Joining the two local athletes on the winner's dais was Inkster's 600-meter relay team made up of Earl Truss, Charles McKay, Michael Henderson, and David Laws who combined on a 3:21.09 to beat out runner-up Flint Beecher for the title.

Larcinese, who is a junior, becomes the first athlete in Belleville's recent history to win a gold medal at the state finals. He did it in the discus. However, Larcinese's winning toss of 163 feet, 10 inches wasn't his best effort of the year. Earlier he had set the school and Wolverine A Conference record with a 165-foot performance.

"Matt has been real consistent over the past month," noted Belleville coach Dave Medley. "There was a crosswind on Saturday which isn't really conducive for throwing the discus, but he managed to overcome the negative elements."

Larcinese was challenged by Troy's Chuck Bartz who orbited the discus "well over the 160-foot marker on his last toss", according to Medley, "but the performance was erased from the sheet because of an infraction. He had fallen, hands first, over the foul line."

Belleville also had a state runner-up in junior Millyard Thomas who finished second to Ann Arbor Huron's Lannie Jackson in the 300-meter low hurdles. Thomas, who had beaten his arch-rival at the regional showdown, this time trailed him across the finish line. Thomas's 37.8 finished earned for him a silver medal. The winning time was posted at 37.4.

"This is the first time that Millyard had been beaten this year," Medley said, "however, when Thomas defeated Jackson at the regional it was the first time he (Jackson) had suffered a setback in that event."

Cherry Hill captures its first district baseball title

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Cherry Hill waited for the playoffs to put it all together.

And the wait was well worth it, according to Spartan coach Ken Mientkiewicz whose club polished off Divine Child 4-3 in the semi-final round and rallied to victory after trailing 3-0 to turn back Dearborn Heights Crestwood 5-4 to capture its first district baseball championship in the school's history.

"It's a great charge to win the title," Mientkiewicz said. "They were pumped up for the playoffs after beating Detroit Northern in the pre-district qualifier. This championship made it pleasant for all of us."

In the semis at Crestwood, Cherry Hill clashed with neighboring Divine Child, one of the top 10 Class B teams in the state this year. Mientkiewicz threw righthander Mark Bayliss into the duel against the Falcons' ace, Ron Targosz, who lasted four innings and gave way to Bob Koskie. Koskie pitched the final three innings.

The Falcons got to Bayliss for a run in the first inning, but after that the Spartan hurler gathered "goose eggs" and scattered three hits until the sixth when the Dearborn ball club put their final two runs on the scoreboard to make it a 4-3 ballgame.

Cherry Hill tied the game in its second as Mark Merriman led off with a single, moved to second when Mark Leskovitz walked, bringing Mike Thibeault to the plate. Thibeault sliced a Targosz curve for an RBI single.

Then in the fourth inning Cherry Hill struck for the three runs that sealed the victory and moved them into the championship game. In that decisive inning Mike Sasseen started it off with a single, then Thibeault slashed a single and Rob Bryer came through with a two-run double. Bayliss drilled what proved to be the winning run with a single, giving the Spartans a 4-1 edge.

However, the Falcons made Bayliss and the Spartans sweat. In the bottom of the sixth the Spartan pitcher hit Scott Dickey with a wild pitch, then Brian Rooney walked and after back-to-back singles by Targosz and Jim Radwan, DC was within one run of knotting the score. But Bayliss got a groundout and a couple of flyouts to pitch out of trouble.

In the seventh, Bayliss got

Class B district champions

Fordson foils Wayne in 9th, 6-5

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

It took nine innings, but Dearborn Fordson knocked Wayne Memorial out of the Class A District Baseball Tournament at Dearborn High on Saturday.

The Tractors broke a 5-all deadlock with a run in the bottom of the ninth to win the semi-final round of the playoffs. They advanced to the championship where they met the host, Dearborn, and lost to the Pioneers.

"The fact that we were down at one point by five runs and this team refused to quit," said Wayne Coach Jim Chronowski "shows the class of this team. They demonstrated the desire to win and, in the final analysis that's what counts."

Although they outthit Fordson 10-7, Wayne couldn't come up with the hits in clutch situations. Ron Way, the outstanding sophomore hurler from Wayne, was tagged for the loss. He went the distance, struck out three and walked eight, three intentionally. Winner lefty Dave Marcon notched five strikeouts and also walked three.

Fordson put five runs on the scoreboard in the third inning before Wayne launched its counter-offensive, getting two in the fifth and three more in the sixth to tie the game. In the Wayne fifth, Tony Darkangelo walked, moved to second when Cameron Mitchell singled, then after a flyout, Chris Kaske grounded to first, moving the runners up. With runners on second and third, Dave Reynolds came through with a two-run single.

In the sixth, the Zebras got the tying runs thanks to Kuan Hearn who was safe on an error, singles by John Eberhart and Eric Shirley produced one run, leaving men on first and second. Darkangelo sacrificed then Gary Scott slammed a two-run double which tied the score.

Way and Marcon battled it out until the last of the ninth when Way issued a base on balls to Chris Estrada who moved to second on an errant pick-off attempt. A popup produced the second out to bring Dave Geiss, the Tractor's leading hitter to the plate. In the two previous games, Geiss had been successful against Wayne, collecting a homer, double and single. Chronowski decided to put Geiss aboard on an intentional walk. With Sean Barton, a transfer student from Wayne, up for Fordson, Way was called for a balk, advancing the two runners. So Wayne decided to put Barton on the empty base. That brought up Dave Cryler who plastered a ball to left center, scoring the winning run.

"We were successful with this strategy earlier in the game, so we decided to go with it again," the Wayne coach revealed. "This time it didn't work."

Reynolds, Chris Kaske and Shirley each collected two hits for the Zebras.

Wayne split in its two make-up games last week. The Zebras edged Trenton 6-4 thanks to John Blair's pitching and Eberhart's two hits, including a double and two RBIs. Gary Scott also checked in with a pair of hits.

Wayne dropped a 6-3 decision to Wyandotte with Dave Linton taking the loss. Kaske and Tim Stone each collected two hits.

Truman ends Romulus' hopes

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Taylor Truman brought the curtains down on Romulus High's erratic baseball season.

Exploding for seven runs in the top of the seventh, Truman eliminated Coach Dennis Stoh's Eagles 8-3 in the semi-final round of the Class A District Tournament staged at Wyandotte Memorial Field.

A 'lack of communications' between two Romulus outfielders helped in the Eagles' demise, according to Stoh. In the seventh, with the bases loaded, the outfielders allowed a routine fly ball drop between them, permitting two runs to score.

"It was a good game until the seventh," Stoh said, "but the defense again killed us. That flyball should have been caught, but what can you do? It's baseball, I guess."

Tony Yankura, whose pitching arm got the Eagles to the district tournament by beating tournament favorite, Lincoln Park, in the qualifying round, was tagged for the loss. He went all the way, allowed 10 hits, and struck out six while walking five. His personal record dipped to 6-6 on the season. Winner Sean Uzarski struck out two, walked five and gave up seven Romulus hits.

Truman got to Yandura for a single run in the first

Cook posts 2nd win at Flat Rock Speedway

Harold Cook notched his second consecutive 30-lap ARCA late model feature victory in Saturday night stock car racing at Flat Rock Speedway.

Cook, driving the B & P Wrecking machine owned by Bill Paxton and crew chiefed by Chuck Carroll, set pole qualifying time for the 30th time since 1981, again coming within .05 seconds of his track record. He then avoided a pair of early-race mishaps which eliminated many of the top runners, including Joy Fair, John Juckette, Pat Haywood and Keith Nowicki.

Following a three-abreast pass of race leader John Wyman, the only car able to stay with Cook was second place finisher and '83 track champ Dave Kuhlman. Joe Hawes finished third with Wyman fourth and John Maki fifth.

Inkster's 600-meter relay also the best

Belleville got an eighth place effort from Billy Armstrong in the 110-meter high hurdles. Armstrong, who breezed through the preliminary and semi-final rounds, went to the blocks "a little frustrated because of his efforts in the shot put," explained Medley.

Armstrong fouled in his first attempt in the shot put and became very conservative and wound up throwing 47 feet, far below his average. He failed to qualify for the shot put finals, then immediately walked over to the hurdles where he finished a disappointing eighth.

Spartans district champ

Kockie on strikes, then walked Sean LaFountain who stole second and went to third on Dickie's groundout. Rooney flied to Bryer for the third out, ending the game.

Crestwood had eliminated Thurston, the defending Class B state champ, to get a shot at Cherry Hill, its Tri-River Conference rival. And the Chargers wasted little time as they scored one run off of winning pitcher John Gould in the first inning, then added two more in the second, building up a 3-0 lead. Down by three, Cherry Hill came back with a single tally in its second on a one-out single by Merriman who raced to second when Bill Laskey also singled. Leskovitz's base hit drove in the Spartans' first run, but loser, Dave Kormus, managed to come out of it without further damage.

The Spartans countered with their second run in the fourth as Merriman got aboard on an error, Laskey's groundout moved him to second where he was singled home by Leskovitz.

Cherry Hill's three crucial runs in the sixth were produced by Merriman who again led off with a single, Laskey followed with a single and Leskovitz's infielder dribbler loaded the bases, bringing up Sasseen who hammered a run-scoring single. That brought up Thibeault with bases-loaded. Thibeault hit one to short and the infielder managed to cut down the run at the plate, but the Charger catcher's relay to first was way off target, and the throwing error allowed another run to score. Bryer belted a single producing what proved to be the winning run.

Gould, a righthander, won his biggest victory of his career, giving up three hits, striking out seven and walking five. Kormus fanned two and walked one before he was replaced by reliever Ken Yuhasz who had pitched the semi-final game to beat Thurston.

District pairings

Although there may be a little bit of confusion which of the two semi-final games they will be playing on Saturday, Class B district champ, Cherry Hill, knows for certain which of the three other qualifiers will be their opponent.

Coach Ken Mientkiewicz and his Spartans will take on Clawson at noon in regional play at Allen Park on Saturday. The winner of the semi-final will meet the survivor of the Monroe Catholic Central-Riverview Gabriel Richard game to determine the championship at 3:30 p.m.

Eric Truss accomplished what some exceptional Cherry Hill broad jumpers failed to do. He won the gold with a leap of 22 feet, 5 inches at the Class B state finals at Jackson Northwest.

"Although we have come close to winning a state title in track," said Spartan coach Dick Gordon, "it was the first time any of our athletes had done it."

Gordon pointed out that Ken Winfrey, who finished second at state in the event, had cleared 22 feet, 11 12 inches in 1981, while Steve Sheahan placed fourth in 1983 with a leap of 22 feet, 6 inches.

'Play ball'

Romulus ousted

inning, but the Eagles tied it up in their fourth when Dave Bergman was hit by a wild pitch. Uzarski then issued walks to Dave Blevins and Terry McIntosh. Don Shults tapped a 10-footer in front of the plate, allowing Bergman to score. With the bases-loaded, and one away, Uzarski stopped the Eagles when he managed to get Sean Vernatt to hit into a double play.

Trailing 8-1 in the seventh, Romulus put their final two runs of the season on the board thanks to Vernatt's lead off single, a single by Steve Malgay and a walk to Bobby Sloan, which loaded the bases. Pinch-hitter Jim Kusibab drilled a single to left, driving in two runs then Bergman was the victim of a double play, ending the game and leaving the Eagles with a 15-13 record.

Romulus had a run "taken away" from them on a very controversial play at the plate, according to Stoh. In the fifth with the score tied at one-all, Stratton had singled and moved to second on a wild pitch then Bergman singled to shallow right field and Stratton raced home only to be called out on a 'very close play.'

"The ump said that they tagged our runner on the shoulder and where we were at I can't buy that," Stoh said. "But he has the final say, and there's little you can do about it."

Stoh said that the 1985 campaign "could have been better."

"The team finished with a .325 batting average and that's the best in modern Romulus baseball history, but I can say that our defense was our downfall. Offensively, we were a much better team than what the record shows."

Cook posts 2nd Flat Rock win

Rick Roland, Ronnie Allen, Dennis Dombeck, Chuck Silva and Canadian Wayne Monk rounded out the top 10. Maki won the dash, Hawes' brother, Gary, and defending champ, Buddy Bennett, won heats and Monk was the consolation event winner.

Tommy Studt survived several close calls at the intersection and the repeated charges of second place finisher Gary Earley to take his fifth career and second consecutive figure-8 feature win. The veteran Earley was glued to the youngster's rear bumper throughout the event, but never could pass and came up one car-length short at the finish.

Dave Miller was third ahead of Denny Pace and Jack Dandy. Ben Benedict, Russ Champagne, Parker Wade, Jack Poli and Tim Easton finished sixth through tenth, respectively. Wade set pole qualifying time, with Tom's brother Bob Studt, Frank Loving and Jack Dandy taking preliminary race victories.

Len Jaynes, who won the first ARCA street stock season title at Flat Rock in 1977, premier sprinters in the state next year. There is no doubt in my mind," Gordon said.

Brown also finished sixth in a photo finish for the 200-meter dash. He hit the finish line in 22.7.

Westland John Glenn's 3,200-meter relay team finished sixth thanks to the efforts of Frank Shelly, Tod Lilla, Jay Hunt and Kyle Szukaitis who were clocked in 8:03.6.

The Rockets' girls' 3,200 relay team broke the state record for the event but settled for second place after trailing Dearborn Edsel Ford to the finish line. Coach Ernie Righetti used the line-up of Laura Grazulis, Pam Eldridge, Michele Sanchez and Karen Opp. The Westlanders were clocked at 9:35.1 while Edsel's T-Birds crossed the finish line in 9:35.0.

Glenn's Ann Parish finished fifth and seventh in the state in the shot put and the discus, respectively, with performances of 38 feet, 10 inches and 117 feet, 10 inches.

Righetti, who has had a long and spectacular career first as a sprinter at Wayne Memorial and later as a coach at Wayne and Westland John Glenn, has decided that the 1985 season would be his last as a coach.

"I really enjoyed working with the kids," said Righetti whose Rockets won the final Northwest Suburban Conference titles, "but I feel it's time for me to do other things, therefore, I've decided to give up coaching for a while."

Belleville returned from the Class A Track & Field state championships on Saturday with its share of medals, including a gold medal earned by junior Matt Larcinese (seated at right) who captured the title in the discus. The Tigers also picked up a silver in the 300-meter low hurdles thanks to the superb efforts of junior Millyard Thomas (seated, at left). Belleville was also represented at state by Billy Armstrong who finished eighth in the high hurdles and also competed in the shot put.

showed his championship form in capturing the street stock feature event despite pressure from the Ford of Rick Bundon.

Jaynes crossed the finish line just ahead of Bundon, Randy Cronenwett, Tom Humbarger, Dave Spence, Robert Casey, last week's feature winner Bruce Hasty, Jerry Cook, Bill Steinhilber and Steve Cronenwett.

Cronenwett paced all qualifiers with Hasty, Joe Shuryan, Mike Laskey, Carl Butzin, Rick Hauck, Mike Budnik and Link Bundon taking preliminary wins.

Despite a leg injury, Cherry Hill's Eric Truss mustered enough leaping power to soar 22 feet, 5 inches to capture the coveted Class B state title in the long jump. A senior, Truss follows in the footsteps of some outstanding Spartan broad jumpers including Ken Winfrey (1981) and Steve Sheahan (1983)

what's that sound . . . by steve o'leary

Versatility is Armatrading's forte

Despite 10 albums, one EP, and vast critical acclaim to her credit, singer/songwriter Joan Armatrading sadly remains a cult figure in America, with only the odd single making the Billboard charts, as did "Drop the Pilot," "Me, Myself, I" and the more recent "Temptation."

Born in the West Indies and raised in England, Armatrading has been melding folk and rock, traditional and new since her first album. Steadily, she built up a following with albums like "Show Some Emotion" and "To the Limit".

Then, in 1980, there was a breakthrough of sorts: FM stations around the country began picking up on the "Me, Myself, I" LP, some wondering aloud as to who was this girl singer that sounded like Rod Stewart. Personally, I never caught the Stewart similarity, but my interest was piqued.

In 1981, with the release of the spectacular "Walk Under Ladders" album, I was hooked. As well as lots of others; that landmark LP was easily Armatrading's best selling record yet.

Joan Armatrading

Her latest, "Secret Secrets," may top them all. A deft mixture of styles that overflows with hooks, emotions and fun. For example, take "Moves", a sure-fire hit: "I picked your face from a thousand miles/ And stand there / Vacant, rooted to the stupid floor / And too scared to think / Get out the door!"

In concert, the magic of Joan Armatrading really shines, as it did to a standing-room only crowd a few weeks ago at Royal Oak Music Theatre. Her distinctive vocals rooted the set which includes everything from beautiful ballads to raucous rock. More than two hours long, the concert showed the crowds a good time for their money, part of which was donated to the Easter Seal campaign.

They were dancing in the aisles from beginning to end, and Joan displayed a cool, almost cocky stage presence that delighted the crowd. "If you want another, sing the chorus of this one by yourself," she laughingly told the crowd at one point. Needless to say, they did.

While nearly all of the new songs were performed, Armatrading also pleased the old faithful by rocking through the hilarious "I Love It When You Call Me Names" and "Drop the Pilot," as well as other favorites like "When I Get It Right," "I'm Lucky," "All the Way From America" and "Bad Habits," even reaching back to her earliest work and drawing more recent converts into full-fledged fans.

The show was one of the best the area has seen in the last year, bar none. And hopefully, many of the radio people who were among the standing, dancing and cheering throng, will play a bit more Armatrading on the airwaves. She deserves it, we deserve it, and it boggles the mind to think of how hypocritical those people must be if they don't. Now, buy the album. "Secret Secrets" should be anything but.

Joan Armatrading

Wayne State University

What's Unique About Wayne State University's Location?

It's the Heart of the Cultural Center . . .
It's the Hub of the Freeways . . .
It's a Short Drive from Your Home!

Almost all residents of Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties are within 30 minutes of Wayne State University's main and medical campuses . . . and residents of the six-county metropolitan region are within an hour's drive away.

All roads lead to Wayne State University: I-94 (the Ford) from east or west; U.S. 10 (the Lodge) from north and northwest; I-75 (the Fisher) from downriver and I-75 (the Chrysler) from north and northeast; and I-96 (the Jeffries) from west and northwest. Several major surface streets also offer easy access.

Once you arrive, you've really arrived. You are in a major center of vitality and activity around Wayne State University: the Detroit Cultural Center. And a few blocks away is the New Center area; a mile away is the Detroit Medical Center, one of the finest and most comprehensive networks of health care institutions in the nation. And we are three miles from Downtown Detroit, Hart Plaza and the riverfront.

The Cultural Center is one of Detroit's best kept secrets. Discover beauty in the Detroit Institute of Arts. Mysteries of nature in the Detroit Science Center. Nostalgia for bygone days in the Detroit Historical Museum. The cross-cultural experience of the International Institute. And the joys of learning at Wayne State University.

The bustling world headquarters of General Motors and Burroughs are a few blocks north in the New Center. The Fisher Theatre and the Golden Tower of the Fisher Building. Shopping arcades. Fine restaurants. Sidewalk musical performances.

In the Medical Center, physicians and researchers from Wayne State University, Harper, Hutzel and Children's hospitals, the Rehabilitation Institute and Detroit Receiving Hospital work to cure ill and improve health care for all.

WSU is where the action is — the Three-Center area of Detroit, composed of the Cultural Center, the Medical Center and the New Center.

Let's have a party! That just about says it all when you're in the party supply business. Lets Have A Party is the newest store to open at the new Woodcrest Plaza, 8300 N. Wayne Rd. in Westland. New owner, friendly Frank Sabo has all the right stuff for party making: hats, streamers, napkins, table covers, balloons, greeting cards, the works. When you feel like a party, Let's Have A Party! 261-4150.

Speaking of parties, watch for the grand opening celebration at Woodcrest Plaza later on this month.

Yeowah! Somebody get me some ice water quick! These nachos at Paddy's Pub are HOT, but sure good.

As long as we're talking about parties, Nancy Kahn of Belleville has come up with a unique business venture called Professional Servers. Miss Kahn and company will serve and supervise any banquet, business meeting, private party or social event. They not only serve, but also set up and clean up, too.

Nancy says, "I came up with the idea after going to parties and discovering that most of the hostesses didn't have qualified people to serve." Professional servers can change from a casual uniform to elegant attire depending on the tone of your get-together. For more information, you may contact Nancy at 697-9360.

8 Wayne city businesses honored

Eight Wayne companies were honored with Businesses Beautification Awards at the regular meeting of the city council May 21.

The City Beautification Committee was represented by Millie Farrell who introduced each business representative to the council and audience. The presentation of each award was made by Mayor Patrick Norton.

Honored for 1985 were: Sisters Chicken & Biscuits, located on Michigan Avenue; Sewruck Insurance Agency of Wayne Road, Budget Car Sales on Michigan Avenue; Franks' Furniture on Wayne Road; White Castle, located at Michigan Avenue and Venoy Road; Tastee Freeze, located on Wayne Road; Millar and Weinburg; also on Wayne Road, Mulholland Dry Goods of Metro Mall and Professional Insurance Associates which is located on Wayne Road.

According to Farrell, the criteria used by the committee in selecting the winners included generally improved appearance, new facade, remodelled premises or a newly erected building.

new facilities across from Mulhollands. Kim's Gifts just recently opened, featuring a large assortment of jewelry, handbags, belts and scarves. Next to the show repair, they're making room for Team Supply with sports clothes and equipment. Watch for them to open soon.

Part Place on Maple Street in Wayne is a new business owned by Vic Fries, former used car manager at Jack Demmer Ford. Vic has given the building a bright new look for used cars and used car parts.

Congratulations to Al Thompson, new used car manager at Jack Demmer Ford in Wayne.

Congratulations are also in order for Sam Anton who has become the new owner of State Wide Auto Sale on Michigan Avenue in Canton. Sam and his staff are specializing in auto detailing on interiors and exteriors. Good luck, guys!

Watch for our special section salute to dads and grads coming next week!

WORDS ABOUT ADVERTISING. "Advertising nourishes the consuming powers of men. It creates wants for a better standard of living. It sets up before man the goal of a better home, better clothing, better food for himself and his family. It spurs individual exertion and greater production." -Winston Churchill.

Northside says so long to Ruby Riddle

Sometimes there is something good about goodbye.

That's the opinion of Ruby Riddle of Glen Street in Westland who recently retired from more than 20 years of service at Northside Hardware in Wayne.

"I'm really enjoying retirement," Riddle said, "and now I just do whatever I want to do."

A Westland resident for more than 35 years, Riddle and her husband moved to the area from Pennsylvania just after their marriage. Now widowed, Riddle plans to do some traveling including trips back to her home state to visit her family which still reside there.

"I enjoyed Northside," she said, adding that the banquet and gifts that the employees gave her were really enjoyable.

She remarked that the changes at the store during her 20 years there were really significant.

"I remember when it was so small and we didn't even have a timeclock. Mrs. Jones in the office would write down the time you came in and then when you left," she chuckled.

Riddle does miss some of the customers, she admitted. And many, she has heard, ask for her, not being aware of her retirement.

"Yes, there were people I waited on for the whole time I was there, steady customers, you know, contractors and the doctors and lawyers who came in nearly every day needing something," Riddle recalled.

"It's nice to be missed, but you can say I'm really enjoying my retirement. I plan to travel and to do just what I want," she added with another laugh.

She retired from the store in April of this year.

Ruby Riddle and her former boss Phil Kaplan of Northside Hardware bid a fond farewell recently as Riddle retired following more than 20 years of service at the Wayne business.

New Budgetel Inn opens in Romulus

A new three-story, 110-room Budgetel Inn has opened in Romulus, Michigan, at 9000 Wickham Road. The Romulus unit, adjacent to Detroit's Metropolitan Airport and near the intersection of I-94 and Merriam Road, is the 20th in the growing chain and the first Budgetel Inn in Michigan. Another is under construction in Jackson, Michigan.

"This will be the best room value in the Detroit area," said David T. Lucas, senior vice president, Budgetel Inns. "Our basic rates will be $29.95 per night for a single and $32.95 double."

Lucas said that, for those rates, guests at the Romulus

Budgetel will stay in spacious rooms with full baths, guest-controlled heating and air conditioning and color television sets equipped to receive satellite programming. In addition, there are free beverages available, free local phone calls, 24-hour desk service and an Executive Center available to rent for small meetings or by traveling businessmen.

Budgetel Inn is a division of The Marcus Corporation of Milwaukee, which also operates luxury hotels in its headquarters city, more than 100 restaurants in Illinois and three other Midwestern states; and 115 movie screens, all in Wisconsin.

Knofski – Smither

A Sept. 28 wedding date has been set by Laurie J. Knofski of Romulus and Lee E. Smither of Belleville.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Fred and Marian Knofski of Romulus. A 1980 graduate of Belleville High School, she is employed by Republic Airlines.

Her fiancé is the son of Thomas and Gertrude Smither of Belleville. A 1974 graduate of Belleville High School, he is employed by the Van Buren Public Schools.

The couple will exchange their vows at St. John's Lutheran Church in Westland.

Laurie Knofski – Lee Smither

Seeburger – Pearce

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seeburger of Wayne have announced the engagement of their daughter, Julie Anne, to Michael Glynn Pearce.

The bride-elect is a 1983 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and is presently employed by Document Processing Systems Inc. in Farmington Hills.

Her fiancé is a 1981 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and is currently a quartermaster third class, serving the U.S. Navy in California.

A July 27 wedding is planned.

Julie Seeburger – Michael Pearce

Underwood – Langa

A June 29 wedding is being planned by Lynne Ann Underwood of Westland and Leo Matthew Langa of Garden City.

The bride-elect, the daughter of William and Sharon Underwood of Westland, is a 1981 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and a 1985 graduate of Madonna College in Livonia, where she received her bachelor of science degree in criminal justice.

She recently graduated from the Wayne County Sheriff's Department Academy and is employed by that department as a deputy sheriff.

Her fiancé, the son of Elizabeth Langa of Garden City, is a 1971 graduate of Garden City East High School. He is employed by the Ford Motor Company at its Wayne Assembly Plant.

Sexton – Bevel exchange vows

One hundred twenty-five guests were in attendance for the June 1 nuptials of Cathleen Rose Sexton of Westland and Clifton A. Bevel, also of Westland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sexton of Westland. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bevel of Romulus.

The late afternoon double-ring ceremony was held at the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church of Westland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an old-fashioned style wedding gown of white satin and lace. A petite headpiece held her short illusion veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of silk flowers.

She asked Louise Watkins to serve as her matron of honor. She wore a light blue satin gown for the wedding with a hair wreath of baby's breath and a bouquet of silk flowers completing the ensemble.

The bridesmaid was Wanda Nelson of Los Angeles, California, who wore a light pink satin gown, complemented by a hair wreath of baby's breath and a bouquet of silk flowers.

The groom asked his brother, Glen Bevel of Romulus, to perform the duties of best man. Serving as usher was Robert Eller of Westland.

A reception for the newlyweds and their guests was held at the Oddfellows Hall in Wayne.

The new Mrs. Bevel is a graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and is employed as manager at Det Staton in Dearborn.

Her husband attended school in Alabama and currently is employed as a bricklayer's assistant.

It's a girl!

"It's a girl," according to Gentry and Sharon Yearout of Belleville, following the birth of their second child May 10.

Sarah Marie made her "debut" at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, weighing in at 7 pounds.

She's the new "little" sister of Joy and the new granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Casmer of Canton Township, Mrs. Estelle Yearout of Westland and Vernon Yearout of Jackson.

Her name is Maggie

Her name is Maggie Jean and she's the second child of Stephen and Susan Taylor of Sauquoit, New York.

The infant made her "debut" at 1:07 p.m. April 16 at St. Luke's Hospital in Utica, New York, weighing 7 pounds, 13 ounces and measuring 20 1/2 inches in length.

She is the Taylors' second child and new "little" sister of Noah, age 2 1/2.

Happy-as-can-be grandparents are Tom and Julie Duni-gan of Westland and Agnes Taylor of Clayville, New York. The great-grandparents are Roscoe and Barbara Douglas of Kalamazoo.

Call me Sherei Lyn

May 15 was an exciting day for Rick and Christine Jones of Mannheim, West Germany, following the birth of their first child, Sherei Lyn.

The infant arrived at 11:48 a.m. at Heidelberg Hospital in Heidelberg, West Germany, weighing in at 7 pounds, 2 1/2 ounces and measuring 20 inches in length.

She's the new granddaughter of Tom and Julie Duni-gan of Westland and Willie and Viletta Jones of Memphis, Tennessee, and the new great-granddaughter of Roscoe and Barbara Douglas of Kalamazoo and Martha Clark of Memphis, Tennessee.

Her father is a sergeant in the U.S. Army and is stationed in West Germany.

A family affair

It was a family affair for Phillip and Lisa Allen of Ypsilanti at the birth of the newest addition to their family May 15.

On hand to coach and help with the delivery was Allen, while his wife's mother offered words of encouragement at the birth at 6 p.m. that day at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Shane Erik weighed in at 8 pounds, 6 ounces and measured 21 inches in length. His choice of birth dates was a pleasant surprise for his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Allen of Belleville, who celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary on that day.

Also celebrating the new arrival are maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Daroci of Belleville.

Angela makes 2

Her name is Angela Marie and she's the newest child of Gary and Marlene Clark of Inkster.

Editor's note: Dan Morris has been a professional dog trainer for more than 20 years and has worked in all phases of dog training. If you have a specific problem, his advice is available by writing to him care of Associated Newspapers, P.O. Box 578, Wayne, Michigan 48184. He will reply in this column.

dan's dogs

by dan a. morris

Throughout any neighborhood one can usually hear the "backyard barker". Generally, this dog will be one of the larger breeds. Why is this dog left barking in the yard?

Most dogs start residence inside the home until the size of the animal causes too many problems for the household. Because of the dog's size, people feel more comfortable putting the dog outside when friends visit. The excuse is that their friends are afraid of large breeds or the dog is all over everyone trying to gain attention. Therefore, the easy way out is to place the dog away from the problem. Instead, the owner should keep the dog in the stress situation and control it.

A dog left alone in the yard will become a victim and will end up causing many problems that take months to correct. Initially, the dog is not aggressive toward its own family and the owners feel that when the dog barks and growls, it is displaying instinctive protectiveness for the family. If only these people realized, they are, in effect, manufacturing a time bomb and when it goes off, they could be faced with a child mutilated by the family pet. Unknowingly, they created a monster and not a protective dog.

This situation begins quite innocently: "The dog likes to be outside." "He is too hot, if left indoors." "He needs his exercise." The remark of "liking to be outside" is the owner's, not the dog's preference. "Too hot inside" is another excuse to keep the dog in the yard. If the dog needs exercise, why is he digging up the yard or tied to a pole outside?

What goes wrong when the dog is left in the yard? The dog becomes territorial, digs, barks, chews, jumps over or digs under the fence, eats plants or shrubs (which could be poisonous) wears a path next to the fence, gets heat stroke, sunburned, goes wild when friends go into the yard, or becomes aggressive.

The dog that is isolated reverts to prehistoric behavior. Even people are pack animals and need interaction with others to maintain the balance and confidence necessary to establish stability. The dog is no different! It is a must that your dog maintain a "solid" temperament. Isolating your dog is no different than locking a person in a closet for eight hours a day, five days a week. They, too, would become a different person.

Taking a dog to obedience school, yet still leaving the dog in the yard, will not solve the problem. You must keep your dog in the house and, above all, when the dog goes outside to relieve himself, supervision is a must! I strongly insist that no dog be left outside alone more than five minutes.

Again, the dog that shows aggressiveness and lack of confidence is a fear biter. The dog that seems to enjoy the aggression is a bully and each is a walking time bomb.

Huzar finds fame by a different name

By SUE McDONALD
ANP News Editor

John Huzar has forgotten what it's like to drive down Wayne Road during rush hour. He found out last week, when he returned to his old stomping ground to meet with a group of students at Wayne Memorial High School.

Huzar is the epitome of the American success story. A 1971 graduate of John Glenn High School, he decided on pursuing a career in radio rather than four years at Eastern Michigan University. He did a two-year stint at a radio station in Ann Arbor, moved on to WMNI in Howell and ended up at WNIC eight years ago.

Now he's the talk of the town, has his own television show on Saturday nights, has had bit parts on the television show "Miami Vice" and in the soap opera "Santa Barbara," hosted the "Martial Arts Theater" on WXON-TV, and is vice-president of WNIC.

But when people see Huzar on the street, they call him by a different name, since he is none other than Jim Harper, host of NIC's morning music show, Harper and Company, one of the most popular morning shows in the metropolitan area.

As Harper explained it to Marianne Roze's communications class in the Adult Education Program: "I had the opportunity to go to college or take a job with a radio station in Ann Arbor after high school. I barely made it out of John Glenn, so I decided to take the job rather than go to college."

It was the smartest decision he could have made.

He encouraged the students to consider a career in communications, noting that "it is a field that is wide open to anybody these days. The age barrier has been broken down in the past few years and with the number of stations being bought up, we're seeing a lot of changes in the field."

Harper maintains that those who succeed in radio have to be well read, not necessarily the classics, but newspapers and magazines to keep abreast with what's happening locally, nationally and in the world.

He also believes that success is dependent on goal setting, that a decision based on "well, I kind of like to work with people" will not get a person anywhere.

"I had already worked with a radio station while in high school, so I knew what I wanted to do," he said. "I could have gone to college, but it would have just put off what I wanted to do for four years."

"A degree doesn't have a lot to do with having fun. Sure, people may think you're scholarly, but if you really know what you want to do when you graduate, go out and do it."

Harper, who noted that communications classes when he was in high school amounted to the journalism class, believes that the message in music to day is headed toward that "good time feeling," that the political messages of the '60s and '70s are on the wane.

"As the years go by people get more liberal," he explained. "I can't imagine a song named 'Like a Virgin' would have been released 10 years ago."

Looking back on his budding television career, Harper found his cameo roll on "Miami Vice" a challenge, although he felt uncomfortable in doing it, and found that the life of a soap opera star isn't all that easy. They're on the set by 7 a.m. and don't start filming a program until 11 hours later.

When questioned about his stint on the "Martial Arts Theater," he was amazed that someone actually watched the movies.

"How could you stand watching those movies," he queried. "We had 50 movies to show, but what they didn't tell us was that the same people did the dubbing for each one. We kept hearing the same voices week after week."

"A degree doesn't have a lot to do with having fun. Sure, people may think you're scholarly, but if you really know what you want to do when you graduate, go out and do it."

—Jim Harper

Harper admits he has a lot of good memories about life in Westland as a teen-ager and he does come back to the area to visit his family, who, he says, loves his work in radio.

"The family loves it," he said, while signing autographs for the students.

"They come up with some great jokes and some ideas. 'Radio's great. You can be who ever yo want to be, but to your folks you're just you.'"

Lack of action on gutted home worries neighbors

By CHRISTINE RISK
ANP Special Writer

An abandoned house on Parkwood has neighbors angered over the city's inability to demolish the structure and worried because the property is infested with rats.

The house, left empty for more than four years after a fire damaged all but the foundation, has been boarded up, but, neighbors complain, the grounds have been ill-kept and the rubble from the garage, destroyed by fire also, has been left untouched for years.

City officials, who have been attempting to tear down the structure, say they've reached a standstill in negotiations with the owner over demolition proceedings. Neighbors in the area say they've become disillusioned with the city's ability to handle what should be a clear-cut solution to the neighborhood problem.

"I think that something should be done," said Carol Topolnicki, one concerned neighbor. "I don't see why the neighborhood should have to put up with this for more than four years."

Topolnicki, who has been crusading for the home's removal, has frequently voiced her dissatisfaction at city councontinually poke around the home, scares parents.

"We just want to make it safe for the neighborhood," she said.

Carolyn Davis, another neighbor who lives on the same side of the street as the home, signed a petition last year asking for its removal.

So far, she said, nothing has been done.

"I think they've just been pacifying us," she said recently.

City Manager Gregory Knowles explained that the house was scheduled to be demolished when the owner, Fostine Berryman, changed her mind.

Apparently, the city offered to demolish the structure at no cost to Berryman, if the city could assume ownership of the property, a situation to which she objected, Knowles said.

The agreement would have

Normally, when property is in such a state of disrepair, the city can declare it a nuisance and take it down, a move that citizens have been clamoring for since 1981.

"But it's private property and until the city gets the title to the home (in court) we just can't do it," Knowles said.

One avenue open to the city may be the purchase of the home through a state tax sale.

According to Wayne County Treasurer records, taxes on the Parkwood home have been delinquent since 1981.

Should the state tax revert the property on the basis of non-payment of taxes, the city would have the option of buying the house for a small fee without going through the owner.

City Assessor Jim Sqatala said the city has one more year before the property can be purchased.

A person, he said, can pay no taxes for three years after which time the property goes on the May county tax sale.

One year later the property is transferred to the Department of Natural Resources for one year, as is currently the status of the Parkwood home, if no other person has purchased the property.

Knowles said Tuesday that given the opportunity, the city would purchase the property from the state.

"Within two months, we could have it demolished," he said.

Neighbors want this abandoned house on Parkwood demolished.

Until that happens, the city will "continue to pursue friendly negotiations" but will consider the option of declaring the property a nuisance, he said.

cil meetings over the last year but, she feels, to no avail.

They just keep passing the buck," she said. "My neighbors see me going to city hall and wonder why they should bother when they don't see any results. I know it takes a while to arrange things, but four years?"

The home sits like an eyesore in the middle of the block amidst well-maintained houses and neat lawns.

The neighborhood, Topolnicki said, has had recurring problems with rats inhabiting the grounds.

That, coupled with the idea that the neighborhood children come after numerous attempts to locate Berryman, who moved to another area in Inkster after the fire.

"We were pursuing the fastest way," he said this week, "and she backed out."

The city never received a written agreement with the owner, a situation which left the city helpless when Berryman backed down, Knowles said.

Negotiations have been ongoing for almost one year and Knowles said he had "no idea" what was done before that time.

He has been city manager for less than one year.

Sota Good

Wedding bells will ring on Oct. 19 for Karen Sota of Belleville and Brian Good, also of Belleville.

The bride-elect, the daughter of Robert and Frances Sota of Belleville, holds a medical transcription degree and is employed by Home Health Care of Metropolitan Detroit.

Her fiancé, the son of Ralph and Ruth Good of Belleville, will receive his bachelor's degree in industrial marketing this August from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

The couple will exchange their wedding vows at St. Anthony's Church in Belleville.

Austin — Boyles

St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Belleville will be the setting for the July 20 nuptial of Dedrie Renee Austin of Twin Lake, Michigan, and Uzell Gavin Boyles of Muskegon.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Wilmer C. Austin of Twin Lake and the late Mary C. Austin. A 1981 graduate of the Muskegon Business College, she currently is employed as a travel consultant with the Muskegon Travel Bureau.

Her fiancé is the son of Marie Boyles of Belleville, and the late Abraham L. Boyles.

A 1982 graduate of Southeastern Academy, he is employed as a station manager by Simmons Airlines at Muskegon International Airport.

New Club officers

Model child Youth wins title

Jason Lee Manning of Westland has added another trophy to his collection, following his selection as the 1985 Mr. Northern Photogenic Model.

Jason garnered the award at the 1985 Northern Modeling Convention, held in Ann Arbor in April.

The son of Terry and Rita Manning of Westland, the five-year-old competed against boys and girls 12 years and under to win the title. He competed in the state modeling and talent competition on May 25-26 at the Holiday Inn/West in Livonia in hopes of representing the state in the grand national finals modeling and talent competition in Kentucky in July.

Jason, a kindergarten student at Wildwood School in Westland, takes modeling classes at the Robert Lee Dance Studio. His interests include playing T-ball at the Wayne-Ford Civic League.

His past honors include Diaper Derby King of Wayne in 1980, Prince of the Wayne Fall Festival in 1982, Mr. Great Lakes and Detroit Baby Pageant and Mini-Holiday Prince of 1984.

Scouting campaign kicks off

Sarah Goddard Power, University of Michigan Regent, recently kicked off Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's 1985 Annual Friends Campaign by stating, "Girl Scouting adds to a girl's development through the issues it addresses and the training involved in meeting those ends."

The Friends Campaign is conducted by the Council to enroll community members, parents of Girl Scouts and adult Girl Scouts as sustaining members who wish to further the work of the Council by contributing money annually, in addition to their regular contribution through the United Way. Friends is conducted as a way of narrowing the gap between growing community needs for Girl Scouting and the Council's traditional financial support.

Serving as this year's Council Friends Chairman is Susan McClanahan, Manager of Annual Giving for the College of Literature, Science and Arts at the University of Michigan. She is responsible for the planning, recruitment of Area Friends Chairpersons and the implementation of this year's campaign. "One of the main reasons I believe in the work of the Girl Scouts is that Leadership training for young women is the main focus of the program," said Ms. McClanahan.

Working as Area Friends Chairperson under McClanahan's leadership are Joanne Young, Howell, who will be canvassing Livingston County; Mary Jennings, Ypsilanti, is working in the Ypsilanti area; Dr. Leonard Bruner, Manchester, is enrolling Friends members in Manchester, Saline, Chelsea and Dexter; Judy Parker, Plymouth, is covering the Plymouth, Northville and Canton areas; and Sharon Sorensen, Erie, is canvassing the southern Wayne and northern Monroe County areas.

It costs Huron Valley Council $58 a year to serve every registered girl member. This cost includes troop and council programs and services, training for adults working with girls, and on-going maintenance of council and camp properties.

If you would like more information regarding becoming a Friends Member, call 483-2370 or write to the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, P.O. Box 539, Ypsilanti, Michigan, 483-2370.

Nurses needed

Nursing is a profession that offers more than ample opportunity for employment and a particularly attractive nursing program can be found in the United States Air Force, said Capt. Henry Cortez, Air Force recruiter in Dearborn.

The Air Force is looking for more than 400 new registered nurses from baccalaureate nursing programs to become commissioned officers during the next 12 months. They are being sought to provide vital health care in clinical nursing. Nurses with experience in mental health, anesthesia, pediatrics, environmental health, operating room and other clinical environments are also eligible to apply for a commission.

Air Force nurses are commissioned either as second or first lieutenants, based on their education. They initially agree to a three-year obligation and know which base they will be assigned to before taking the oath of office.

After commissioning, they attend a two-week Medical Service Officer Orientation course at Sheppard Air Force Base, near Wichita Falls, Texas.

Following their orientation, many newly graduated BSN nurses attend a five-month internship at an Air Force hospital which may also be the site of their final assignment. The internship provides a smooth transition of the initial active duty nurse from beginning practitioner to that of a professional Air Force Nurse Corps officer.

More information is available by visiting Captain Cortez at the Air Force Recruiting Office, at 19855 West Outer Dr., Suite 102, Garrison Place West, Dearborn, or call collect (313) 561-7018.

He wins award

Romulus High School student Donald D. Re was awarded one of seven scholarships from the National Institute of Technology-Livonia campus recently.

Re received a $3,500 scholarship, based on his ability to communicate, attitude, appearance and test scores. The scholarship can be applied toward tuition costs of the business 18-month electronic engineer-
